THE EDUCATION TRUST AND CHALKBEAT PRESENT A CONVERSATION WITH STUDENTS AND U.S. SECRETARY OF EDUCATION MIGUEL CARDONA

Join us on Thursday, June 24 at 6 pm CT/7 pm ET for #InTheirVoices, an event featuring U.S. Secretary of Education, Dr. Miguel Cardona in conversation with a panel of high school students from across the country.

We are especially proud to have two students from The Education Trust in Tennessee network featured in the event:

- Chinaya Mason, a recent graduate of Austin East High School in Knoxville and member of the Ed Trust in Tennessee EmpowerED network, who was nominated by the Knoxville Area Urban League, and,
- Trey Cunningham, a student serving on our P-12 Policy Council and recent graduate of Hawyood High School in Brownsville who was nominated by the TN NAACP.

Joined by peers in Michigan and New York, Chinaya and Trey will share their thoughts with the Secretary on navigating school during the pandemic and discuss the education policy changes they feel most passionately about. Come hear more about Chinaya's love for her Austin East community amid a tragic year of gun violence and Trey's commitment to make sure students like him get the resources they need to succeed in school.
